

FEED BACK ANALYSIS REPORT

(STUDENTS)

2018-2019

Understanding the voices of students is fundamental in shaping an exceptional educational experience. Through a comprehensive survey, we have gathered valuable feedback from our student body, offering a deep dive into their perspectives on various aspects of their academic journey. This analysis report distills the collected data to provide a comprehensive overview of strengths, as well as areas that warrant attention and improvement within our institution.

The goal of this analysis is to transform feedback into actionable insights that guide strategic decisions, promote ongoing growth, and elevate the overall academic experience we provide. By paying heed to the collective student voice, we reaffirm our commitment to not only imparting knowledge but also creating an environment that nurtures personal development and empowers each student's journey.

CONCLUSION

The feedback from respondents is overwhelmingly positive across most categories. The curriculum's effectiveness, practical skills, multidisciplinary approach, continuous learning, curriculum integration, comfort of classrooms, accessibility of library resources, campus environment, campus maintenance, and co-curricular/extracurricular activities are well-received.

However, there are some areas for improvement, such as enhancing comfort and equipment in lecture halls, increasing the promotion of a sense of community, and addressing minor concerns about cleanliness. This feedback can be used to further enhance the positive aspects and address the areas that need improvement in order to create an even better learning environment
